- 1.3. “Documentation Agent” has the meaning ascribed to it in Section 5.1 hereto.
- 1.4. “Loan” means a consumer loan as evidenced on a Simple Interest Note and Security Agreement in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A and as revised from time to time by Merrick.

- 1.5. "Note" means the Simple Interest Note and Security Agreement in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A and as revised from time to time by Merrick.
- 1.6. "Required Documentation" means all documentation Merrick may require from time to time to assist Merrick in its determination to make a Loan or purchase a RISC.
- 1.7. "RISC" means a retail installment sale contract in the form(s) attached hereto as Exhibit B and as approved and/or revised from time to time by Merrick in its sole discretion.

2. ACCEPTANCE OF LOAN AGREEMENTS AND PURCHASE OF CONTRACTS.

- 2.1. Merrick, in its sole discretion, may request Dealer to document Loans on the Note that are acceptable to Merrick. In the event a Buyer wishes to apply to Merrick for a Loan to finance the purchase of Property, Dealer agrees to contact Merrick and provide Merrick with the information Merrick requires to evaluate the Buyer's creditworthiness. To the extent Merrick approves the credit request, Dealer agrees to document the Loan on the Note in accordance with the instructions it receives from Merrick from time to time, and to provide such other information as Merrick may reasonably request, in Merrick's sole discretion. At no time will Merrick ever be obligated under the terms of this Agreement to make any Loan to any Buyer.
- 2.2. Merrick may, in its sole discretion, wish to purchase RISCs from Dealer. If so, Merrick will indicate its willingness to purchase RISCs to Dealer. If Merrick has not made such indication to Dealer, Merrick will not accept RISCs from Dealer. any required acts or keep any promises of Dealer made under this Agreement, Dealer is deemed to have breached this Agreement.

9. PAYMENTS RECEIVED BY MERRICK BANK. Dealer hereby grants to Merrick a power of attorney to endorse Dealer's name to any remittance offered as payment on any Loan or RISC and to retain the proceeds thereof as payment on such Loan or RISC. The parties agree that this power is coupled with an interest and is irrevocable. This power survives the termination of this Agreement.

Merrick reserves the right to terminate this Agreement in the event of such change, and Dealer's failure to notify Merrick of such change will be a breach of this Agreement.
15. DEFAULT.
 - 15.1. If Dealer defaults in the performance of any obligation to Merrick, whether pursuant to this Agreement or otherwise, or breaches any representation or warranty contained in this Agreement, Merrick, at its election, may notify Dealer of such default or breach and may, unless the Dealer cures the breach within ten (10) days after any such notice, demand payment from Dealer of the Purchase Price. 17. CONFIDENTIALITY. Each Party and its affiliates, its agents, subcontractors and employees receiving confidential information of the other Party (other than NPI) shall use such confidential information only for the purposes set forth herein and shall treat such information as strictly confidential, and shall use the same care to prevent disclosure of such information as such Party and/or its affiliates uses with respect to its own confidential and proprietary information, which shall not be less than the care a reasonable person would use under similar circumstances.
18. FURTHER ASSURANCE. Each party to this Agreement will execute and deliver all such further instruments and documents as may be reasonably requested by the other party in order to fully carry out the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Each party hereto represents and warrants that it has the right, power, legal capacity, authority and means to enter into and perform this Agreement (as well as the documents referenced in this Agreement), and that the same will not contravene or result in the violation of any agreement, rule, or regulation to which any such party may be subject. In this connection, Dealer will deliver to Merrick upon execution of this Agreement, a certificate of corporate officer substantially in the form of attached Exhibit C.
19. NONINVOLVEMENT OF MERRICK BANK. At no time is Dealer affiliated or under common control with Merrick. Nothing contained in or any action contemplated or taken under this Agreement creates a partnership or joint venture between Merrick and Dealer. The services of Dealer under this Agreement, except as otherwise expressly provided, are rendered independent of Merrick, and Dealer is not otherwise an agent, employee or representative of any kind or nature of or for Merrick.
20. REMEDY FOR BREACH. If Dealer breaches this Agreement, Dealer will pay Merrick all losses and expenses incurred by Merrick as a result of such breach. In addition, Dealer will indemnify Merrick for any losses incurred by Merrick because of any judicial set-off or recovery suffered because of any claim or defense asserted against Merrick as a result of any act or omission on the part of Dealer or the Documentation Agents to the extent such act or omission was outside the scope of authority granted under this Agreement. Dealer will be liable even if a waiver, compromise, settlement or variation of the terms of the Loan Agreement releases a Buyer.
21. TERMINATION. Merrick or Dealer may terminate this Agreement upon written notice to the other party, effective immediately. Merrick may terminate the agency of any Documentation Agents, upon written notice to Dealer, effective when sent. In the event Dealer terminates the employment of, or its other relationship with, a Documentation Agent, Dealer will promptly notify Merrick of such termination. The agency of such Documentation Agent terminates as of the time such Documentation Agent's employment or other relationship with the Dealer terminated. The termination of this Agreement will not release Merrick or Dealer from any obligations incurred with regard to Loans that are subject to this Agreement.
22. AMENDMENTS. No modification of the terms of this Agreement will bind Dealer or Merrick unless it is in writing and is signed by the authorized representative of Merrick.

23. MISCELLANEOUS.

- 23.1. No Agency. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, this Agreement does not make either the Dealer or Merrick the agent or legal representative of the other for any purpose whatsoever, nor does it grant either party any authority to assume or to create any obligation on behalf of or in the name of the other. Neither party owes the other any fiduciary obligation.
- 23.2. Entire Agreement. This Agreement applies to all past and future Loans prepared by Dealer for Merrick or RISCs purchased by Merrick, as applicable, constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes all prior agreements of the parties with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement. No waiver of any of the provisions of this Agreement constitutes a waiver of any other provision, nor will any waiver constitute a continuing waiver.
- 23.3. Validity; Amendment. This Agreement shall not be valid until signed and accepted by an authorized officer of Merrick and Dealer. Dealer agrees that Merrick may amend this Agreement, together with any addenda, schedules, exhibits or other documents attached hereto, from time to time by providing written notice to Dealer.
- 23.4. Additional Rights and Liabilities. The rights and liabilities of Merrick and Dealer in this Agreement are in addition to those set forth in the Loans or RISCs, as applicable, and any related agreements between Dealer and Merrick.
- 23.5. Assignment. This Agreement binds, and inures to the benefit of, the successors and assigns of the parties hereto. Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, Dealer may not assign this Agreement or any rights or obligations hereunder, voluntarily, involuntarily, by operation of law or otherwise without Merrick's prior written consent which Merrick may withhold for any reason whatsoever. Merrick may assign this Agreement to the extent it deems that such assignment does not materially and detrimentally affect the rights and obligations of Dealer.
- 23.6. Severability. In the event that any provision of this Agreement is held unenforceable, such provision is severable from the remaining provisions of this Agreement and the remainder of the Agreement remains in full force and effect.
- 23.7. Indemnification. Dealer agrees to defend, indemnify, protect, save, keep, and hold Merrick, and its shareholders, directors, officers, employees, representatives, agents, servants, successors and assigns harmless from and against any and all, claims, losses, liabilities, damages, injuries, costs, expenses, attorneys' fees, court costs and other amounts (collectively, "Indemnified Items") arising out of or resulting from (i) Dealer's breach of this Agreement, (ii) the failure of any representation or warranty of Dealer contained in this Agreement to be correct, or (iii) the actions of Dealer, its affiliates, or their respective shareholders, directors, officers, employees, representatives, agents, servants, successors and assigns in connection with the Loans, RISCs and Property, in particular and without limitation, any action or claim brought or asserted by the Buyer or any other person in connection with any Loan or RISC, as applicable, by reason of any improper action taken by Dealer (including Documentation Agents) in connection with such Loan or RISC, as applicable. Dealer shall assume the settlement and defense of any suit or suits or other legal proceedings brought to enforce all such Indemnified Items, and shall pay all judgments or settlement amounts resulting from any such suit or suits or other legal proceedings, together with all other costs and expenses, including, but not limited to, attorneys' fees and other litigation costs.

- 23.8. Governing Law. This Agreement is not complete until executed by Merrick at its offices in South Jordan, Utah. This Agreement shall be governed by and interpreted in all respects by the laws of the State of Utah without regard to any conflicts of law principles or choice of laws that would require the application of laws of another jurisdiction.

General Instructions

Future developments. Information about developments affecting Form W-9 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) is at www.irs.gov/fw9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)
- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)

- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding? on page 2.

By signing the filled-out form, you:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income, and
4. Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting, is correct. See What is FATCA reporting? on page 2 for further information.

Note. If you are a U.S. person and a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien;
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States;
- An estate (other than a foreign estate); or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax under section 1446 on any foreign partners' share of effectively connected taxable income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, the rules under section 1446 require a partnership to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the section 1446 withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid section 1446 withholding on your share of partnership income.

In the cases below, the following person must give Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States:

- In the case of a disregarded entity with a U.S. owner, the U.S. owner of the disregarded entity and not the entity;
- In the case of a grantor trust with a U.S. grantor or other U.S. owner, generally, the U.S. grantor or other U.S. owner of the grantor trust and not the trust; and
- In the case of a U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust), the U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust) and not the beneficiaries of the trust.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person or the U.S. branch of a foreign bank that has elected to be treated as a U.S. person, do not use Form W-9. Instead, use the appropriate Form W-8 or Form 8233 (see Publication 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien. Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a "saving clause." Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the payee has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement to Form W-9 that specifies the following five items:

1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.
2. The treaty article addressing the income.
3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.
4. The type and amount of income that qualifies for the exemption from tax.
5. Sufficient facts to justify the exemption from tax under the terms of the treaty article.

Example. Article 20 of the U.S.-China income tax treaty allows an exemption from tax for scholarship income received by a Chinese student temporarily present in the United States. Under U.S. law, this student will become a resident alien for tax purposes if his or her stay in the United States exceeds 5 calendar years. However, paragraph 2 of the first Protocol to the U.S.-China treaty (dated April 30, 1984) allows the provisions of Article 20 to continue to apply even after the Chinese student becomes a resident alien of the United States. A Chinese student who qualifies for this exception (under paragraph 2 of the first protocol) and is relying on this exception to claim an exemption from tax on his or her scholarship or fellowship income would attach to Form W-9 a statement that includes the information described above to support that exemption.

If you are a nonresident alien or a foreign entity, give the requester the appropriate completed Form W-8 or Form 8233.

Backup Withholding

What is backup withholding? Persons making certain payments to you must under certain conditions withhold and pay to the IRS 28% of such payments. This is called "backup withholding." Payments that may be subject to backup withholding include interest, tax-exempt interest, dividends, broker and barter exchange transactions, rents, royalties, nonemployee pay, payments made in settlement of payment card and third party network transactions, and certain payments from fishing boat operators. Real estate transactions are not subject to backup withholding.

You will not be subject to backup withholding on payments you receive if you give the requester your correct TIN, make the proper certifications, and report all your taxable interest and dividends on your tax return.

Payments you receive will be subject to backup withholding if:

1. You do not furnish your TIN to the requester,
2. You do not certify your TIN when required (see the Part II instructions on page 3 for details),

3. The IRS tells the requester that you furnished an incorrect TIN,

4. The IRS tells you that you are subject to backup withholding because you did not report all your interest and dividends on your tax return (for reportable interest and dividends only), or

5. You do not certify to the requester that you are not subject to backup withholding under 4 above (for reportable interest and dividend accounts opened after 1983 only).

Certain payees and payments are exempt from backup withholding. See Exempt payee code on page 3 and the separate Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 for more information.

Also see Special rules for partnerships above.

What is FATCA reporting?

The Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA) requires a participating foreign financial institution to report all United States account holders that are specified United States persons. Certain payees are exempt from FATCA reporting. See Exemption from FATCA reporting code on page 3 and the Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 for more information.

Updating Your Information

You must provide updated information to any person to whom you claimed to be an exempt payee if you are no longer an exempt payee and anticipate receiving reportable payments in the future from this person. For example, you may need to provide updated information if you are a C corporation that elects to be an S corporation, or if you no longer are tax exempt. In addition, you must furnish a new Form W-9 if the name or TIN changes for the account; for example, if the grantor of a grantor trust dies.

Penalties

Failure to furnish TIN. If you fail to furnish your correct TIN to a requester, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

Civil penalty for false information with respect to withholding. If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to a $500 penalty.

Criminal penalty for falsifying information. Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

Misuse of TINs. If the requester discloses or uses TINs in violation of federal law, the requester may be subject to civil and criminal penalties.

Specific Instructions

Line 1

You must enter one of the following on this line; do not leave this line blank. The name should match the name on your tax return.

If this Form W-9 is for a joint account, list first, and then circle, the name of the person or entity whose number you entered in Part I of Form W-9.

a. Individual. Generally, enter the name shown on your tax return. If you have changed your last name without informing the Social Security Administration (SSA) of the name change, enter your first name, the last name as shown on your social security card, and your new last name.

Note. ITIN applicant: Enter your individual name as it was entered on your Form W-7 application, line 1a. This should also be the same as the name you entered on the Form 1040/1040A/1040EZ you filed with your application.

b. Sole proprietor or single-member LLC. Enter your individual name as shown on your 1040/1040A/1040EZ on line 1. You may enter your business, trade, or "doing business as" (DBA) name on line 2.

c. Partnership, LLC that is not a single-member LLC, C Corporation, or S Corporation. Enter the entity's name as shown on the entity's tax return on line 1 and any business, trade, or DBA name on line 2.

d. Other entities. Enter your name as shown on required U.S. federal tax documents on line 1. This name should match the name shown on the charter or other legal document creating the entity. You may enter any business, trade, or DBA name on line 2.

e. Disregarded entity. For U.S. federal tax purposes, an entity that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner is treated as a "disregarded entity." See Regulations section 301.7701-2(c)(2)(iii). Enter the owner's name on line 1. The name of the entity entered on line 1 should never be a disregarded entity. The name on line 1 should be the name shown on the income tax return on which the income should be reported. For example, if a foreign LLC that is treated as a disregarded entity for U.S. federal tax purposes has a single owner that is a U.S. person, the U.S. owner's name is required to be provided on line 1. If the direct owner of the entity is also a disregarded entity, enter the first owner that is not disregarded for federal tax purposes. Enter the disregarded entity's name on line 2, "Business name/disregarded entity name." If the owner of the disregarded entity is a foreign person, the owner must complete an appropriate Form W-8 instead of a Form W-9. This is the case even if the foreign person has a U.S. TIN.

Line 2

If you have a business name, trade name, DBA name, or disregarded entity name, you may enter it on line 2.

Line 3

Check the appropriate box in line 3 for the U.S. federal tax classification of the person whose name is entered on line 1. Check only one box in line 3.

Limited Liability Company (LLC). If the name on line 1 is an LLC treated as a partnership for U.S. federal tax purposes, check the "Limited Liability Company" box and enter "P" in the space provided. If the LLC has filed Form 8832 or 2553 to be taxed as a corporation, check the "Limited Liability Company" box and in the space provided enter "C" for C corporation or "S" for S corporation. If it is a single-member LLC that is a disregarded entity, do not check the "Limited Liability Company" box; instead check the first box in line 3 "Individual/sole proprietor or single-member LLC."

Line 4, Exemptions

If you are exempt from backup withholding and/or FATCA reporting, enter in the appropriate space in line 4 any code(s) that may apply to you.

Exemption from FATCA reporting code. The following codes identify payees that are exempt from reporting under FATCA. These codes apply to persons submitting this form for accounts maintained outside of the United States by certain foreign financial institutions. Therefore, if you are only submitting this form for an account you hold in the United States, you may leave this field blank. Consult with the person requesting this form if you are uncertain if the financial institution is subject to these requirements. A requester may indicate that a code is not required by providing you with a Form W-9 with "Not Applicable" (or any similar indication) written or printed on the line for a FATCA exemption code.

A—An organization exempt from tax under section 501(a) or any individual retirement plan as defined in section 7701(a)(37)

M—A tax exempt trust under a section 403(b) plan or section 457(g) plan

Note. You may wish to consult with the financial institution requesting this form to determine whether the FATCA code and/or exempt payee code should be completed.

Line 5

Enter your address (number, street, and apartment or suite number). This is where the requester of this Form W-9 will mail your information returns.

Line 6

Enter your city, state, and ZIP code.

Part I. Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. If you are a resident alien and you do not have and are not eligible to get an SSN, your TIN is your IRS individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). Enter it in the social security number box. If you do not have an ITIN, see How to get a TIN below.

If you are a sole proprietor and you have an EIN, you may enter either your SSN or EIN. However, the IRS prefers that you use your SSN.

If you are a single-member LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner (see Limited Liability Company (LLC) on this page), enter the owner's SSN (or EIN, if the owner has one). Do not enter the disregarded entity's EIN. If the LLC is classified as a corporation or partnership, enter the entity's EIN.

Note. See the chart on page 4 for further clarification of name and TIN combinations.

How to get a TIN. If you do not have a TIN, apply for one immediately. To apply for an SSN, get Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card, from your local SSA office or get this form online at www.ssa.gov. You may also get this form by calling 1-800-772-1213. Use Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number, to apply for an ITIN, or Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, to apply for an EIN. You can apply for an EIN online by accessing the IRS website at www.irs.gov/businesses and clicking on Employer Identification Number (EIN) under Starting a Business. You can get Forms W-7 and SS-4 from the IRS by visiting IRS.gov or by calling 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676).

If you are asked to complete Form W-9 but do not have a TIN, apply for a TIN and write "Applied For" in the space for the TIN, sign and date the form, and give it to the requester. For interest and dividend payments, and certain payments made with respect to readily tradable instruments, generally you will have 60 days to get a TIN and give it to the requester before you are subject to backup withholding on payments. The 60-day rule does not apply to other types of payments. You will be subject to backup withholding on all such payments until you provide your TIN to the requester.

Note. Entering "Applied For" means that you have already applied for a TIN or that you intend to apply for one soon.

Caution: A disregarded U.S. entity that has a foreign owner must use the appropriate Form W-8.

Part II. Certification

To establish to the withholding agent that you are a U.S. person, or resident alien, sign Form W-9. You may be requested to sign by the withholding agent even if items 1, 4, or 5 below indicate otherwise.

For a joint account, only the person whose TIN is shown in Part I should sign (when required). In the case of a disregarded entity, the person identified on line 1 must sign. Exempt payees, see Exempt payee code earlier.

Signature requirements. Complete the certification as indicated in items 1 through 5 below.

- 1. Interest, dividend, and barter exchange accounts opened before 1984 and broker accounts considered active during 1983. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.
- 2. Interest, dividend, broker, and barter exchange accounts opened after 1983 and broker accounts considered inactive during 1983. You must sign the certification or backup withholding will apply. If you are subject to backup withholding and you are merely providing your correct TIN to the requester, you must cross out item 2 in the certification before signing the form.
- 3. Real estate transactions. You must sign the certification. You may cross out item 2 of the certification.
- 4. Other payments. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification unless you have been notified that you have previously given an incorrect TIN. "Other payments" include payments made in the course of the requester's trade or business for rents, royalties, goods (other than bills for merchandise), medical and health care services (including payments to corporations), payments to a nonemployee for services, payments made in settlement of payment card and third party network transactions, payments to certain fishing boat crew members and fishermen, and gross proceeds paid to attorneys (including payments to corporations).
- 5. Mortgage interest paid by you, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, qualified tuition program payments (under section 529), IRA, Coverdell ESA, Archer MSA or HSA contributions or distributions, and pension distributions. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

Secure Your Tax Records from Identity Theft

Identity theft occurs when someone uses your personal information such as your name, SSN, or other identifying information, without your permission, to commit fraud or other crimes. An identity thief may use your SSN to get a job or may file a tax return using your SSN to receive a refund.

To reduce your risk:

- Protect your SSN,
- Ensure your employer is protecting your SSN, and
- Be careful when choosing a tax preparer.

If your tax records are affected by identity theft and you receive a notice from the IRS, respond right away to the name and phone number printed on the IRS notice or letter.

If your tax records are not currently affected by identity theft but you think you are at risk due to a lost or stolen purse or wallet, questionable credit card activity or credit report, contact the IRS Identity Theft Hotline at 1-800-908-4490 or submit Form 14039.

For more information, see Publication 4535, Identity Theft Prevention and Victim Assistance.

Victims of identity theft who are experiencing economic harm or a system problem, or are seeking help in resolving tax problems that have not been resolved through normal channels, may be eligible for Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) assistance. You can reach TAS by calling the TAS toll-free case intake line at 1-877-777-4778 or TTY/TDD 1-800-829-4059.

Protect yourself from suspicious emails or phishing schemes. Phishing is the creation and use of email and websites designed to mimic legitimate business emails and websites. The most common act is sending an email to a user falsely claiming to be an established legitimate enterprise in an attempt to scam the user into surrendering private information that will be used for identity theft.

The IRS does not initiate contacts with taxpayers via emails. Also, the IRS does not request personal detailed information through email or ask taxpayers for the PIN numbers, passwords, or similar secret access information for their credit card, bank, or other financial accounts.

If you receive an unsolicited email claiming to be from the IRS, forward this message to phishing@irs.gov. You may also report misuse of the IRS name, logo, or other IRS property to the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration (TIGTA) at 1-800-366-4484. You can forward suspicious emails to the Federal Trade Commission at: spam@uce.gov or contact them at www.ftc.gov/idtheft or 1-877-IDTHEFT (1-877-438-4338).
